

2025 CONSTITUTIONAL LAW CONFERENCE PROGRAM FOR FRIDAY 7 FEBRUARY 2025

Supported by the Australian Association of Constitutional Law & Federation Press

We invite you to register for the 2025 Constitutional Law Conference, held in a hybrid format on Friday 7 February 2025 and organised by the Gilbert + Tobin Centre of Public Law at the Faculty of Law and Justice, UNSW, with the support of the Australian Association of Constitutional Law and Federation Press.

The conference will feature discussions of important developments in the High Court, Federal Court and state courts and provide an overview of the key public law debates in 2024. The conference will include papers on the constitutional separation of powers, migration, native title, and the role of government lawyers in Australian public law, among other topics.

The conference will be held in hybrid format, with attendees able to register in person (100 pax capacity) or online via Zoom. The in-person element of the conference will be held at the offices of Gilbert + Tobin in Barangaroo, Sydney. There will be multiple opportunities for informal interaction throughout the day. A cocktail party will be hosted for those attending in person at Gilbert + Tobin. Zoom details will be forwarded to online attendees closer to the date.
